

HOW TACOMA EATS

Exploring Food Security and Accessibility in Tacoma

Wednesday, April 13
6-9 pm

In the Great Room at Catholic Community Services
1323 S Yakima Ave, Tacoma

Featuring a panel discussion with these community organizations that are increasing food security and accessibility in Tacoma.

Brandi Yanez-Riddle

The Puyallup Watershed Initiative's Just & Healthy Food Community of Interest

Christine Cooley

The Puyallup Watershed Initiative's Agriculture Community of Interest

Jeff Bessmer

Central Co-op

Kevin Glackin-Coley

The St. Leo Food Connection

Mark and Katie Green

Wild Hare Organic Farm

Mason Durfee

Harvest Pierce County

Hal Meng

Center for Food and Preservation Arts

April Henson

*Tacoma Farmers Market
SNAP Ambassador*

Followed by a facilitator-led call-to-action workshop. It will include small table discussions that will spark conversations, create connections, and inspire action!

Plus...

A bonus tour for anyone interested in the new Center for Food and Preservation Arts located in the St. Leo Food Connection!

