Press Release

Pip & Lola's Everything Homemade celebrates One Year in Freighthouse Square

Pip & Lola's Everything Homemade in the historic Freighthouse Square is putting together its First Anniversary Extravaganza.

Tacoma, WA July 15, 2013: Samantha Camp – Owner, Operator and Goddess of Soap for Pip & Lola's Everything Homemade – is thrilled to announce that Pip & Lola's Everything Homemade has now had its doors open for a year. To commemorate the occasion, Pip & Lola's will be having a First Anniversary Extravaganza on Thursday, August 1, 2013 (one year to the date from its Grand Opening) from 10 a.m. – 7 p.m.

The storefront began with a dozen vendors and now has over 70 handmade artisans. Camp knows it is no easy feat to survive the first year of business and she and her vendors feel it is worthy of a celebration.

"We could not have done it without the vendors and the amazing customers," Camp says. "The least I can do is give them love and cake."

And much more. There will be live music throughout the day in addition to free "birthday" cake and sales throughout the shop. Final plans are still being solidified but Camp promises it will be worth the trip. "Throwing parties is one of my superhero powers," Camp says.

Currently, there are knit and crochet items, pottery, jewelry, wood turnings, stained and fused glass, BBQ rubs, clocks, chain mail jewelry and accessories, candles, young girls' dresses and skirts, aprons, synthetic hair pieces, blankets, paintings, cards, plus, of course, the SOAP and a whole lot more.

Hours of operation are Monday – Saturday 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. and Sundays 12 – 5 p.m.
