Current Work

Saturday, March 29, 2014 - From 12:00 to 6:00 pm

The show currently at the Brick House is Current Work. I put out a call to everyone who has shown at the Brick House in the past to submit an example or two of what they were working on currently. The only parameters were that the work be done in 2013.

There are works by more than twenty artists in a wide variety of mediums. I have the work hung "Salon Style" which is another way to say that I have things stacked in the gallery like cord wood. It's a very eclectic group of artists and work. Some artists have evolved along familiar paths, while others have gone in totally new directions.

There is something for everyone in this show. This show has had a really good response from viewers and reviewers. I have had comments from people wanting the gallery to be open a bit more, so Saturday it is...

Come have a look!
