Workshop fee: 2days $70 museum members, $80 non-members. 1day $40 members, $45 non-members. Limited to 15 participants. Call 253.858.6722 x5 to register.

Happy Days

Juror: Luke Tornatzky

This year the museum is honored to have Luke Tornatzky judge the exhibition. For Luke Tornatzky there is no end to the exploration of color, light and shape. While working in either oil on canvas or charcoal on paper, Tornatzky combines his love of boats, water and light in startling compositions and brilliant colors. Luke's award winning pieces have been the highlight of numerous exhibits and publications throughout the Pacific Northwest. Please visit Luke Tornatzky's web site for more information about him and his art at www.luketornatzky.net

Eligibility:

Artists residing in the United States are welcome to submit original maritime artwork. Most mediums are accepted, see categories for specifics. Maritime/marine art includes the sea itself, the coast, seaside, ships, sailing craft, beaches, wildlife, portraits, people, or anything related to the sea. Works must have been executed in the past two years and not shown in any previous Harbor History Museum show. Artists may not substitute another work for an accepted work nor withdraw the work once it is accepted.

Entry fee: Non-refundable single entry fee of $35 for up to three (3) entries. Credit card and Paypal accepted through OnlineJuriedShows.com.

Entry deadline: Friday, May 23, 2014, 11:59 pm

Awards: 1st prize – $500; 2nd prize – $200; 3rd prize – $100; People's Choice Award (no cash award).

If your work is accepted:

Deadline for delivery of original artwork to Harbor History Museum: July 15, 2014, 4121 Harborview Drive, Gig Harbor. Museum hours: Tuesday through Sunday, 10 am to 5 pm

Complete an IDENTIFICATION TAG for each piece accepted. Attach one tag to each art piece (Tags found on the museum's website: harborhistorymuseum.org/exhibits/special-exhibitions). Artwork must be sturdily framed with strongly wired hangers installed ON the frames. Bracket frames, uni-Frames, rings, zipper, and sawtooth type mountings are not acceptable and proper materials will be a factor in selection.

Sales: If you wish to sell your artwork, there is a 40% commission to the Harbor History Museum on all sold items.

Pick-up date for exhibited artwork: August 26, from 10 am to 5 pm (or by arrangement with Harbor History Museum).
