Call for Artists - 2019

The City of Federal Way Arts Commission in partnership with the Rhododendron Species Botanical Garden (RSBG) and the Pacific Bonsai Museum announces a Call for Artists for the annual event Blue Poppy Day – A Festival of Art and Nature to be held on Saturday, May 18, 2019 from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. at RSBG. The mission of Blue Poppy Day – A Festival of Art and Nature is to celebrate and feature: artistic talent from Puget Sound region, the connection between the complementary beauty art and nature, and the bloom of two rare Himalayan Blue Poppy meadows at the Rhododendron Species Botanical Garden.

Selection Process

All applications will be reviewed by a Selection Panel. The Selection Panel is composed of members of the Federal Way Arts Commission and community volunteers with an interest in the arts. Selection of artists is based on artistic merit with consideration given to achieving exhibit diversity. Submissions that include Blue Poppies are strongly encouraged and will be given first consideration.

We are looking for a diverse array of artists in all media, including but not limited to: metal, mixed media, glass fiber art, ceramics, painting, photography, sculpture, jewelry, wood, drawing/illustrations, prints, digital art, paintings, and more.

How to Apply

To apply – send an email to cody.geddes@cityoffederalway.com that includes the information below.

- A completed Artist Application form (see below)	- An artist biography for potential media release (only to be used if artist is accepted). Not to exceed 400 characters.
- A brief resume listing professional experience i.e. exhibition experience (include where and when), residencies, lectures; honors, awards or grants; visual arts training and/or education	- At least three (3) but no more than five (5) digital images of work that best illustrates qualifications (Jpeg files only). File set up should be 500 pixels on the longest side at 72dpi, 300 KB each (saved)

Prior to the show, the artist must submit a list of art works and their value (see Artist Application). The Arts Commission reserves the right to suggest or require adjustments to an exhibit after it is in place.
