

Auburn: City Hall Gallery Kate Dougherty & Julia Szten

Contact:

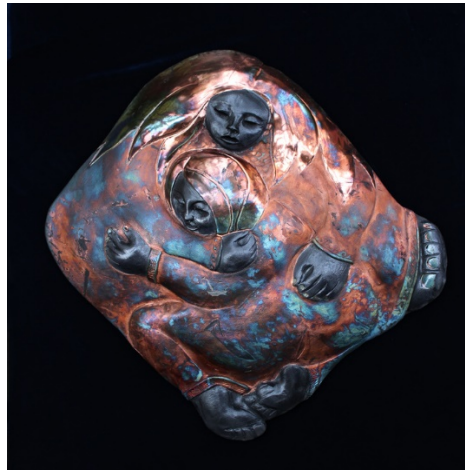

Allison Hyde, Art Coordinator

253-804-5043 ahyde@auburnwa.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 8, 2019

The City of Auburn and the Auburn Arts Commission are pleased to present the work of the Kate Dougherty and Julia Szten at the City Hall Gallery, on view April 9th – May 22nd, 2019.

Artist Kate Dougherty creates beautiful encaustic artworks that reflect her interests in “architecture and the environment, developing a relationship between structure, nature and culture as a universal landscape.” Julia Szten will be featuring figurative clay sculptures, the artist often drawing her inspiration from “Japanese woodblock prints, the patterned polychrome pottery of the Southwest and the calligraphic line and interlocking shapes of the Pacific Northwest tribes as well as Art Nouveau.”

Left: Antiquity II, Kate Dougherty. Encaustic.

Right: Comfort, Julia Szten. Raku.

City Hall Gallery

25 W. Main Street, Auburn, WA 98001

Monday - Friday, 8am-5pm

This art installation is coordinated through the City of Auburn, Parks, Arts & Recreation Department and with the support of the Auburn Arts Commission.

Questions? Contact Allison Hyde, Art Coordinator at 253-804-5043 or ahyde@auburnwa.gov.

Information on the City of Auburn's arts programming can be found at www.auburnwa.gov/arts or call 253-931-3043.