

Auburn: City Hall Gallery Kamryn Tulare

Contact:

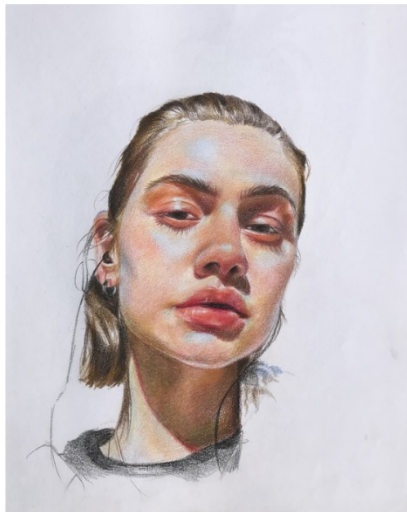

Allison Hyde, Art Coordinator

253-804-5043 ahyde@auburnwa.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: August 26, 2019

The City of Auburn and the Auburn Arts Commission are pleased to present the work of the Kamryn Tulare at the City Hall Gallery, on view August 27th – October 10th, 2019.

Artist Kamryn Tulare will be showcasing a series of portrait drawings “inspired by social media culture, particularly Instagram.” The artist sourced images from Instagram when she “was desperate to draw and study portraits, and quickly became fascinated in the way people portray themselves online.”

(Al)exa, Kamryn Tulare.
Colored pencil.

City Hall Gallery

25 W. Main Street, Auburn, WA 98001

Monday - Friday, 8am-5pm

This art installation is coordinated through the City of Auburn, Parks, Arts & Recreation Department and with the support of the Auburn Arts Commission.

Questions? Contact Allison Hyde, Art Coordinator at 253-804-5043 or ahyde@auburnwa.gov.

Information on the City of Auburn’s arts programming can be found at www.auburnwa.gov/arts or call 253-931-3043.