

Opening September 28th 3-8pm
301 Puyallup Ave. Tacoma

John Rizzotto is a contemporary still life painter who recalls the Spanish and Northern European masters. John always paints from life and vacillates between an image of stark simplicity or one rich in complex narrative. John's primary formal concerns are capturing light, form, and the metaphysical weight of objects, as well as exploring the endless possibilities of composition

