

CALLING ALL POETS

Greater Gig Harbor Poetry Festival

Where: Ocean5 in Olympic Towne Center

Address: 5268 Point Fosdick Dr, Gig Harbor, WA 98335

Sunday, October 9, 2022 - 1pm to 5pm

FREE ADMISSION – Limited Seating

Reserve your seat today!

<https://tinyurl.com/gghlit-poetry>

Program Highlights

Dynamic workshop guided by leading regional poets

Open mic poetry readings

Sell your poetry books

- books must be delivered by September 20, 2022 (contact Larry Fowler for drop off or pick up arrangements).
- sales managed by Blue Cactus Press (20% commission)

Featured Poets

Keynote speaker Nicole McCarthy is an experimental writer | poet | artist. She earned her MFA in Creative Writing & Poetics from the University of Washington Bothell.

Workshop leader Lydia K. Valentine, Tacoma Poet Laureate, is a playwright & poet, director & dramaturg, editor & educator. Through her work, Lydia seeks to amplify the voices of those who are often stifled, ignored, & marginalized.

Host Christina Vega is a poet and the publisher at Blue Cactus Press, a hybrid publisher making books that serve as community resources by Queer and BIPOC authors.

Questions? Contact Larry Fowler (larry@dlfowler.com) include Poetry Festival in subject line.

Sponsored by: Greater Gig Harbor Literary Society

Funding by City of Gig Harbor Creative Endeavor Grant

