National Poetry Month

Thursday, April 25th | 5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. | Free

Postmark Center for the Arts

The City of Auburn is excited to announce a special event this April with our 2024-2026 Poet Laureate Mateo Acuna.

Come over to Postmark Center for the Arts on April 25th to celebrate poetry with Auburn's past and present Poets Laureate 5:30 - 7:30 pm. Poems from the Poets Laureate chapbook will be read at the event, and copies of the chapbook will be given to attendees. Auburn's past Poets Laureate: James Rodgers (2021 - 2023) Susan Landgraf (2018-2020) Marjorie Rommel (2015-2017) Richard (Dick) Brugger (2012 - 2014) There will also be a panel discussion with the current Poet Laureate Mateo Acuña and former Poets Laureate. Attendees can bring their questions for discussion. Abby Murray, former Poet Laureate of Tacoma, will emcee the event and moderate the panel discussion.

We hope you can join us to celebrate National Poetry Month and our wonderful Poets Laureate!

This art program is coordinated through the City of Auburn, Parks, Arts & Recreation Department with the support of the Auburn Arts Commission. Questions? Contact Allison Hyde, Arts Program Supervisor at 253-931-3043 or arts@auburnwa.gov
