

TACOMA CITY THEATERS
THREE STAGES · ONE DISTRICT

MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: September 24, 2024

MEDIA CONTACT:

Kyleigh Palmer, Senior Manager Marketing & Event Strategy | kpalmer@asmtacoma.com | 253-591-5939

TACOMA CITY THEATERS LAUNCHES 2024-25 SEASON

Season includes a Broadway star, comedians, musicians, and K-Pop

TACOMA, Wash. – Tacoma City Theaters is officially launching their 2024-25 entertainment season with a happy hour on the stage of the historic Pantages Theater on Thursday, September 26, 5:00pm – 7:00pm, 901 Broadway, Tacoma.

This next season builds on a successful 2023-24, which saw more than 67,000 visitors attend almost 100 events within the Historic Theater District's three venues – Pantages Theater Rialto Theater, and Theatre on the Square.

"It has been wonderful to welcome so many people through the doors of the theaters to enjoy thrilling performances from artists like Dolly Parton and Jason Bonham, as well as to inspiring community events such as the Pride Awards", states Lynn Carlotto, Tacoma City Theaters' General Manager.

"We welcomed movie star John Cusack and Saturday Night Live's Colin Jost during the summer, so I'd say this season is off to a pretty exciting start!"

Guests at Thursday's happy hour will hear about upcoming events while enjoying light refreshments, listening to live performances, and meeting members of the theater's eight Resident Arts Organizations.

2024-25 event highlights include Broadway and TV star Kristin Chenoweth on October 5, popular medical comedian Nurse John on October 20, K-Pop group Loossemble on October 21, Tacoma Youth Symphony Association's Costume Concert on October 26, and the annual family holiday favorite The Nutcracker from Tacoma City Ballet in December.

Tacoma City Theater's Season Launch Happy Hour is on Thursday September 26, at 5:00pm, Pantages Theater, 901 Broadway Tacoma. RSVP at <https://bit.ly/seasonlaunch24>.

For information about and tickets to upcoming shows, visit TacomaCityTheaters.org.

##

ABOUT TACOMA CITY THEATERS

Tacoma City Theaters, owned by the City of Tacoma and managed by ASM Global, is home to the historic Pantages Theater, Rialto Theater, and Theatre on the Square. They host eight Resident Arts Organizations, enriching the community with presentations of a diverse schedule of performances, special events, and educational programs. The venues showcase live entertainment ranging from concerts and comedy to movie showings, original theater, spoken word, and performances by international touring artists and productions. (TacomaCityTheaters.org)