Ground to Sound Film and Art Festival Returns to Tacoma

March 14, 2025

An Evening of Film, Music, Poetry, and Art Inspired by the Puget Sound

Tacoma, WA — The Ground to Sound Film and Art Festival is back for its highly anticipated second year, bringing together filmmakers, artists, musicians, and poets for an unforgettable night of conservation through storytelling and creativity. Set against the stunning backdrop of the Foss Waterway Seaport, this one-night-only event on March 14th, 2025, will celebrate the power of communal stewardship through art.

Attendees can expect a dynamic lineup of documentary film screenings, live music, a photo gallery, interactive art installations, literary readings, freestyle cyphers, and more—all curated to bring awareness to our city's need to reduce stormwater drain pollution in the Puget Sound through showcasing the incredible talent of local and regional artists.

Event Details:

Location: Foss Waterway Seaport, Tacoma, WA

Doors Open: 6:00 PM

Program Begins: 6:30 PM

Art & Community Engagement: Until 9:30 PM

Ground to Sound is more than an event—it's a movement that fosters connection, creativity, and a shared appreciation for the environment and culture of the Pacific Northwest.

The festival is made possible by the generous support of the City of Tacoma Environmental Services Team, Foss Waterway Seaport, Foster's Creative, and an incredible roster of artists, filmmakers, and community partners.

This is a free, all-ages event, welcoming everyone who believes in the power of storytelling and the arts to inspire change.
