

Zion International Film Festival Returns to Tacoma June 27 – July 3, 2025 with First Screening at Newly Renovated Historic Blue Mouse Theatre

TACOMA, WA (June 2025) – The Zion International Film Festival (ZIFF) proudly returns to the Pacific Northwest from June 27 through July 3, 2025, with an exciting lineup of diverse independent films celebrating creativity, redemption and the beauty of the human experience.

This year's edition marks a major milestone as ZIFF becomes the first screening event to be held at the historic Blue Mouse Theatre following its highly anticipated remodel and seating upgrade project. Located in the heart of Tacoma's Proctor District, the theater provides a perfect backdrop for this year's hybrid experience, offering both in-person screenings and virtual access for film lovers everywhere.

ZIFF's 2025 program features a dynamic selection of films across all genres, from fantasy and horror to comedy, drama, documentary and family-friendly content. The festival is designed to foster meaningful conversations and connections between filmmakers and audiences, and industry professionals in an atmosphere that's both inspiring and down-to-earth.

Festival passes are now on sale, and full schedule and single-screening tickets are live at: zionfilmfest.com. Audiences are encouraged to plan early to experience the newly upgraded venue and be part of this year's unforgettable celebration of independent cinema.

ZIFF is helmed by veteran film festival director and programmer whose work has been recognized by Filmmaker Magazine and MovieMaker Magazine.
