A Tacoma Christmas Story

“Flicker: A Tacoma Christmas Story” Premieres November 22, 2025 at The Grand Cinema

A locally produced holiday film invites audiences to rediscover the magic of Tacoma through community, storytelling, and Christmas spirit.

TACOMA, WA — This holiday season, local Tacoma creative marketing agency, Foster's Creative, presents Flicker: A Tacoma Christmas Story — a heartwarming new holiday film premiering Saturday, November 22, 2025, at The Grand Cinema in downtown Tacoma.

The 40-minute interactive film follows Trixie (played by local comedian Jaci Terjeson), an elf on assignment in Tacoma, as she sets out to restore the city's holiday spirit when a mysterious glitch leaves the “S” in the city's iconic “sElf Storage” unable to turn off. Guided by a glowing book, her adventure winds through real Tacoma landmarks, local businesses, and unexpected encounters, reminding audiences that sometimes the brightest light is found in community.

Rooted in Tacoma's grit and charm, Flicker blends heartfelt storytelling, humor, and hometown nostalgia. The film was shot across beloved Tacoma locations and features partnerships with Tacoma Self Storage, APIZZA Little Italy, Charme Nail Studio, Tinkertopia, Grit City Knives, and the Tacoma Dome.
