Join us at Postmark Center for the Arts for TWO upcoming free workshops with Discovered Narratives artists Melanie Reed and Sarah Dillon!

Painting with Paper: Integrated Surrealist Collage

With Melanie Reed

June 4, 2026 | 4-7PM

FREE | Ages 16+

@Postmark Center for the Arts

Visit Postmark Center for the Arts for a FREE workshop with collage artist Melanie Reed! This workshop is designed to investigate the possibility of taking collage-making to a new level, bringing out the best of what it's best potentially suited for as a medium. We will be taking a close look at source material, story-telling, and composition principles, and examining unique ways to combine disparate imagery for surreal effect. All materials provided.

No need to register, just drop in!

Story Mask Making

with Sarah Dillon

June 18 and June 25, 2026 | 3-5PM

FREE | Ages 10+

@Postmark Center for the Arts

Register here for story mask making!

Story masks are a wonderful way to release your personality into a piece of art. Not only through the imprint of your own face, but the stories and symbols that help make you who you are. Bring a partner for this activity! Parent and child partners are welcome. Partners will use the art making process as a way to express and share personal or family stories. In this FREE two-session workshop, we will make plaster masks on our own faces, which will help prompt us to share personal stories. All materials provided!

Please plan to attend both sessions:

June 18th, 3-5pm

June 25th, 3-5pm

If you are registered for this activity and are unable to make it, please cancel your registration so those on the waitlist may attend.

This art program is coordinated through the City of Auburn, Parks, Arts & Recreation Department with the support of the Auburn Arts Commission. Questions? Contact Allison Hyde, Arts Program Supervisor at 253-931-5100 or arts@auburnwa.gov
